

Reframing the Library: Reflections on Washington Tribal libraries

October 8, 2026

5:30 PM-7:30 PM

Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture

📍 2316 W 1st Ave.
Spokane, WA

Register by scanning below:

What is a Tribal library?

In this presentation hosted by the University of Washington Information School, insights from research projects centering the history, current needs, and future of library services for Tribal communities in Washington state will be explored. Using Indigenous research methodologies, our project reframes how libraries, including public libraries, can serve communities while respecting and honoring Tribal relations.

Free and open to all. Join us early for the presentation, then stay for light appetizers and community connections.

Speakers

Sandy Littletree

Cindy Aden